

Painless Benefits Administration

Achieving high quality member service within a pressurized cost environment is making pensions and provident fund administration a more painful challenge for trustees and sponsoring companies.

As an award-winning provider of pensions administration, Aon can supply the painless solution you and your members desire. Advancements in technology, streamlined processing and increasing levels of automation have pushed our service standards even higher while ensuring our costs stay competitive.

Whether you are already outsourcing or about to do so, our deep understanding of pensions, occupational schemes and outsourcing allows us to meet the needs of members, trustees and sponsors alike.

So let us take the pain out of your benefits administration and ensure nobody gets stung.
